Kidderpore College Women's Forum Observes International Women's Day on 16.03.2019

8th March every year is observed as International Women's Day worldwide. Kidderpore College Women's Forum celebrates this day prestigiously every year. In 2019 Women's Forum organised a programme entitled Women And Child Welfare on 16.03.2019 to pay respect to Women's Rights and arouse awareness on Women Empowerment. The NGO SWAYAM came to the College to organise the Awareness Programme. Three resource persons from the NGO conducted the entire programme. The programme started with a welcome address delivered by Prof. Susmita Ghosh Joint Convenor of the Women's Forum. The programme was presided by Prof. Dr. Syed Ali Irfan Naqvi. Madam Swati gave a thought-provoking lecture on the issue of Women Empowerment and child welfare. She interacted rigorously with the student participants on this issue. The students spontaneously and whole- heartedly interacted with the resource persons. Then some of the students of the College namely EzazAhmed, SabahParveen, Abhay Kumar Rai. Shahin along with Prof. Dr. Chandrabali Das performed a wonderful Drama entitled "Gaandi Baat" written and directed by Prof. Dr. Amajit Basu. Finally the programme ended with a vote of thanks.

Kidderpore College Women's Forum 2018-19

Kidderpore College Women's Forum organises a Programme on Communal Harmony every year on 6th December. On the 6th December 2018 also the College Women's Forum organised such a programme in collaboration of the NGO Swayam. The Programme was conducted by Madam Seema and Rahul who work for the NGO Swayam. The Programme began at 2.00 pm in Room no 9 of the College. It was divided into two sessions. The first session began with a lecture delivered by Seema Madam regarding the necessity and importance of observing communal harmony. She emphasised on the importance of raising awareness among the students regarding how to maintain harmony among the different communities in the interest of maintaining a pluralist society. In this session Rahul made the students aware of how to protect the rights of the girls at the time of communal riots. In the second half of the programme the students were shown a documentary film on the topic of Communal harmony followed by an interaction between the Members of Swayam and the students. Finally, the programme ended with the hoisting of the NSS, College and Communal Harmony flags.
