Workshop by IQAC on 27th April 2023

A workshop on Quality Initiatives for Teachers and Administrator under the perspective of evaluation by NAAC was conducted by the IQAC, Kidderpore College as Dr Indrani Basu, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Behrampur College, NAAC District Mentor, MURSHIDABAD, West Bengal as the key resource person of the workshop.

With the second cycle of NAAC accreditation on the anvil, the workshop was aimed to prepare and upgrade the quality initiatives of the college.

The inauguration speech was delivered by the Principal, Dr Abhijit Ganguly. Dr Swati Pal, the IQAC convenor, introduced the speaker and said that this workshop would help us prepare for the third cycle reaccreditation.

Dr Basu harped on the fact that every college is one if its kind with its inherent strengths and weaknesses. And it becomes the duty of the IQAC to identify them and nurture the strengths to bring out the best in the college.

She said that the process of accreditation is an exercise which prepares the college to compete with other colleges in general, and better the standards set by the college in the last cycle in order to improve the quality of Higher Education in the state

In the second half of her speech, she used a PowerPoint presentation and discussed threadbare the broad genres of the seven criteria of the AQAR and SSR. She categorically pointed out the difficulties that an affiliated college faces as it doesn't have any power in the formulation and propagation of its syllabus. But she reiterated that we have to make the most out of our limitations and gear ourselves up for the betterment of all stakeholders associated with Higher Education. The improvement in the quality of teaching, infrastructure, administration will automatically improve the student quality and help them face their work life as better equipped human beings.

..... participants, faculty and non-teaching members of the college were present.
